From Executive Director, Kate Hoepke:

Dear Members and Friends:

On one thing we can all agree – this has been a strange and strenuous year! I don’t think my nervous system can take one more assault, and we still don’t know the election results. Every day a news story erupts that tops the last one for corruption, hatred, and betrayal. I struggle to make sense of it and retain my optimism in the face of so much upheaval. A friend reminded me this morning to take 10 minutes every day to remember the core goodness of people.

It’s good advice, a solid place to connect with humanity, regardless of the propaganda telling us we’re more polarized than ever. Dividing people is a well-worn tactic of the powerful to maintain power, especially when they’re in the minority. They win when we lose hope and feel disconnected from one another.

Strengthening our connections is what San Francisco Village is all about. We believe in the power of community to give shape and purpose to our lives; to engender values of reciprocity and love; to sustain us when we feel lost or lonely. Feeling connected and cared for may be especially difficult during this 2020 holiday season when family and friend gatherings will be limited.

I invite you to use San Francisco Village as a hub for giving and receiving friendship this holiday season. Give someone the joy of light-hearted conversation. Break the mold, take a risk, call Jill and say that you want to be matched with another member or volunteer. Take a physically distanced walk together, meet for coffee at a parklet, or ride the Ferris wheel at Golden Gate Park. Pick three or four names from the Member Directory - people you may have seen on a Zoom call or live in your neighborhood - and send them a holiday card. Invite them to exchange letters or phone calls. Make someone’s day!
Despite the fact that we can’t gather in person, we’re planning a delightful virtual holiday party for you, full of surprises. Save December 9th from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. We’ll send you the Zoom link when you RSVP. If you’re not yet on Zoom, please call us and we can get you set up in the next several weeks.

Feeling the warmth of connection this holiday season may require some ingenuity from all of us. A heartfelt intention to make someone’s day brighter is a good place to start. Reach out, stay in touch.

With gratitude and love,

Kate

November Events

Writers Workshop

Tuesdays, November 3, 10, & 17, 10:00 -- 11:30 AM

This series started in October and workshop is full; those on the waitlist have priority the next time it’s scheduled

RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org to receive the Zoom link and telephone number

Space is limited to 12 participants

Have you always wanted to write your memoir but didn’t know where to start? Have you got some poems tucked away in a drawer? Do you have an idea for a gripping novel? Or do you just want to put pen to paper -- wondering if poetry, an essay or a short story will emerge?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, we invite you to the San Francisco Village Writers’ Workshop.

We welcome writers of all levels and will try different writing styles – from memoir, to poetry to short and long fiction. We will explore poets and authors that resonate with us – and try to figure out how they transfer their experiences, thoughts and feelings to the written page. And we will, to paraphrase poet Robert Frost, learn how to “surprise our readers, and ourselves, with our words.”

The Writers’ Workshop is led by writer and journalist Elaine Elinson, author of the award-winning Wherever There’s a Fight and former editor of the ACLU News. Elinson, has led writing workshops at SFV since 2015. We will have six 1.5 hour sessions on ZOOM.

COVID-19 has impacted our daily lives for over 8 months now. How are you doing? How are you adjusting to a situation that keeps changing with indefinite uncertainty? How have you built your resiliency bank to continue to cope?

Join Village members across the state to engage in small group discussions about your life—what is hard, what is bringing pleasure, what your fears and hopes are. What parts of your day are spent with and without purpose? What makes you feel liberated, restored, hopeful? Let the community support you and be a support to others. Who knows, you might just hear (or share!) the exact idea that will make a day brighter!

Village Movement California is a coalition of grassroots community organizations called villages. Together with our partners, we seek to revolutionize the experience of aging.
Virtual Cuddle Club with Muttville
Thursday, November 19, 2:00 PM
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org to receive the Zoom link

Before COVID quarantine, Cuddle Club took place at Muttville’s headquarters, providing a social event for those who were unable to care for a dog. This was a fun opportunity for our guests to interact with dogs as well as to visit with one another. Muttville volunteers and staff discussed what we knew about each dog - age, health, breed, where it came from, etc., and the Mutts got to play, cuddle, sleep, run around or do other doggie things. If weather permitted and guests were interested, some Mutts went for a brief walk outdoors with senior guests.

While Virtual Cuddle Club doesn’t provide actual “cuddling”, guests visit and learn about some of our Mutts virtually via Zoom. As we’ve learned with human interactions on Zoom, we work with what’s available and dogs are still sweet to “play” with via camera!

Muttville is able to accept senior Mutts during this unusual time, and they’re being fostered by our terrific volunteers. Wonderfully, many Mutts are being adopted into forever homes during the quarantine.

In-depth Advance Care Directive Workshop
Thursdays. November 19 and December 3, 3:30 – 5:30 PM
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org to receive the Zoom link

A 2-part workshop offered by Redwing Keyssar, RN, Author, Director of Patient and Caregiver Education at the UCSF MERI Center for Education in Palliative Care to assist people in creating meaningful and personalized Advance Directives for Healthcare.

Advance Care planning is critical for everyone! It is not just for people who have an illness. Every adult in our country should have this paperwork in place.

Many people have created documents of this type in the past, but then have forgotten where they are or what they wrote down as being important. This workshop will give you an opportunity to review/revise what you have written in the past and create a new document that is specific and detailed regarding your wishes of how you would want to be cared for, if you had a medical event or serious illness and could not speak for yourself.

These issues are particularly important to consider, during this time of a global pandemic.

Please join the MERI Center and San Francisco Village in our unique workshop model that we have perfected over many years! There will be plenty of time for conversation and questions.
Did you Know: 90% of people believe talking with their loved ones about their medical wishes is important, but only 27% have done so. Let’s make it 100%!

What Can I Do: Moving from Climate Despair to Climate Action

Friday, November 20, 10:00 – 11:30 AM
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org to receive Bill Haskell’s contact information

This is the second session to discuss Jane Fonda’s provocative book: What Can I Do? Moving from Climate Despair to Climate Action. We will continue learning about the climate crisis that we are witnessing in the wildfires in California and in the devastation across the globe. We will explore what actions we might take that will help slow and even stop climate destruction in the US and around the world.

Fonda notes: It is important for us all to do what we can as individuals, but our real power comes when we work together. Climate change is a collective crisis, and it requires collective, not individual, solutions. Also, women, young and old, are at the forefront of climate actions and solutions. Older women are the core of the climate movement - working in collaboration with younger leaders like Greta Thunberg. Taking the time to work across generations and movements makes climate actions stronger.

From our discussions, we will discover the actions that feel right for us to undertake. All members are welcome to join this second session who have read Jane Fonda’s book. Contact Bill Haskell for more information.

“Zoom” to a discussion, moderated by Betty Burr, to connect with and help other “solos” through what you have learned. Pick up hints from people you have met in the solo circle. Figure out what you would really like to be able to do despite sheltering in place and see if anyone else would also like to join in. (With a social distance, of course.) In other words, don’t be solo at a time like this! For more information, contact Betty Burr.

Virtual Medicare D Outreach Clinic
Questions? Contact Rajul A. Patel, PharmD, PhD at (209) 910-3784 or medicareclinics@pacific.edu

Since 2007, University of the Pacific's Medicare Part D Outreach Clinics have assisted 8,686 beneficiaries with their Medicare Part D drug plan, helping beneficiaries (that’s you!) save an estimated total of $8.77 million.

Doctor of pharmacy (PharmD) students work with each beneficiary to evaluate all Part D prescription drug plan offerings to identify the one that will help minimize out-of-pocket prescription drug costs. We intend to serve as an objective, unbiased resource that beneficiaries can rely upon in getting accurate information about Medicare Part D plan offerings.

The need for these events is ongoing, as Medicare Part D plan offerings change each year, as do the formulary and cost-sharing structure of each plan. Students also provide Medication Therapy Management, a comprehensive evaluation of the patient's medications to ensure they are safe and effective to take together. If needed (and with permission from the patient), we will contact the beneficiary's physician and/or pharmacist and share with them our findings and make specific recommendations.

What you will need to have handy
1. Your red, white, and blue Medicare card.
2. All of your prescription medications.

Scheduled appointments are REQUIRED for all beneficiaries this year. Call the number by the date you wish to attend ASAP to make your appointment!

In Memoriam

Molly Brant, 94111, was gentle, open and gracious. Despite her painful physical challenges, she never failed to smile and to encourage others. Not only did she offer kindness, but she accepted kindness with a sweetness that is rare. She listened more than she spoke. She moved quietly with confidence and intelligence. Molly was active in Metropolitan Club (a women’s business organization) serving on committees and boards. She will be missed.
