Dear Members and Friends:

November is a good time for reflection. On this rainy afternoon at the end of the year, I’m thinking about all that we’ve come through the past 18 months, and how we’ve been changed. Global pandemic, racial reckoning, climate disaster, insurrection, disinformation, political brinksmanship. At a time when trust in our basic social contracts is eroding, the work of SFV as an intentional caring community is more essential than ever. We are compelled to consider how we can serve more people, in new ways.

Last summer, the board and staff started working with diversity/equity/inclusion (DEI) consultants Nita Baum and Jillian Hubbard. Together, we took a deep dive into our organizational culture to make conscious what was unconscious - the unintentional unspoken agreements operating under the surface in alignment with white dominant culture. Choices made by default. We wanted to know if we could make different choices that would result in a more equitable and inclusive community.

That led us into the strategic planning process. Thanks to a dedicated group of members, staff and board members meeting for seven months, it is nearly completed. I’m proud to say it captures the moment we’re living in and gives voice to what SFV can become.

SFV has always operated at the intersection of health care and social care and will continue in that mission. We believe optimal health requires social connection, access to care and knowing that we belong. We also believe that elders have an important leadership role to play in convening younger generations in dialogue and collective action. Let’s call it eldership. Younger people need elders to call them into the circle, and we need to learn from them new and important ways of thinking about race and racism, justice, sexuality, gender and other critical social issues. Let’s invite them to teach us.

After 30 interviews with various stakeholders including members, volunteers, staff, funders and colleagues the team is affirming a new vision for SFV that imagines a more equitable organization, across race, age and culture. We imagine an expanded community that includes people of diverse cultures and backgrounds who share in our mission to co-create a web of connection during a time of great uncertainty. As always, we’re committed to a learning journey and we’re grateful to be sharing it with you.

We’re planning to share the details of the strategic plan with you at the State of the Village meeting in February. Between now and then, stay healthy and stay in touch. There are more than 45 events to choose from in November. That’s a lot of ways to stay in touch! I hope you find something that makes your heart sing.

Love,

Kate

In Memorium

Manny Miro (94112)
Manny loved the theatre, movies, reading, eating good food and traveling. He was Puerto Rican and a great Latin dancer. He was fluent in Spanish, French and a little Italian. We traveled the world together: India, France, Australia, New Zealand and Alaska.

But his greatest love was Oaxaca, Mexico. It became a second home that we visited every year for a month. We had a little apartment, near a dear friend, and spent our days slowly enjoying the warm, loving people, the vibrant colors, the food, the art; it was a feast for all our senses.

Manny and I were “hippies” living in Haight Ashbury in the 60’s. We had our children there and marched in the peace marches and listened to the great music in the panhandle. Years ago he acted and directed in little theatre groups in Marin and San Francisco. We worked at The Renaissance Faire for many years running a pewter jewelry business. Manny’s last job was as a manager for Good Life Grocery in Potrero Hill, where the customers loved him. He was a gentle quiet man with a great smile. As a friend wrote “I always thought of him as a cuddly teddy bear, kind and so sweet”.

Manny and I were so happy when we joined the Village. It became a large part of our social lives. We met so many great amazing people, staff included. So many happy memories.

The last year has been difficult for Manny as he struggled with many health issues. We sold our house, moved into assisted living, hoping that would make life easier. But he was just tired of it all. One day he laid down on my bed to rest for a minute and found peace.

Manny was a father to Kim and Todd, a grandfather to Cody, Casie, Logan and Miles, a brother to Bob, George, Linda and Eileen and my companion for over 60 years. He will be greatly missed by all of us.

Holiday Closures
The San Francisco Village office will be closed November 25 & 26 for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Member to Member

Listening to Black Voices Cluster
The Listening to Black Voices Cluster invites other SF Village members to join our provocative discussions and fun activities. We read one book a month and supplement our reading by other activities. Contact Sharon Kuester for more information.

We have also attended Juneteenth celebrations, participated in Bayview Clean-Ups and Beautifications, Grocery Packing with the African-American Faith-Based Coalition, viewed films such as Summer of Soul and Respect, shopped at Black-owned businesses, listened to interviews and panel discussions of relevance, and joined a steel drum band.

Our next meeting is November 3rd (and every first Wednesday of the month) at 4:00 pm, locations vary. We will be reading My Face is Black Is True: Callie House and the Struggle for Ex-Slave Reparations by Mary Francis Berry.

November Events

Mindfulness and Connection for Challenging Times
Tuesdays, November 2 & 9, 10:30 – 11:30 AM
This series started in October
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Would you like to recharge, reconnect, and learn simple practices to help change your relationship to stress? Join us for a 4-week online series. The series includes a combination of mindfulness and stress management practices, interaction and discussion (including breakout sessions), some journaling, and instruction of how stress impacts the brain and body. Simple evidence-based practices include breathing practices, focused attention, body scan, cultivating compassion, gentle movement, and everyday activities like walking, eating, talking where you can practice mindfulness. You will walk away with practices and strategies you can easily integrate into daily life, and maybe with some new connections as well!

Terre Passero has a passion for helping individuals grow personally and professionally. She founded Mindful Stress Management, whose mission is to help eliminate roadblocks to success and wellbeing. She has been teaching mindfulness since 2005 and has decades of experience leading global teams in organizations. She is a Certified Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR) Instructor and a Certified Stress Mastery Educator. She also spent five years in Japan where she practiced (and still practices) Zen meditation.

Fiduciary Services 101
Thursday, November 4, 10:30 – 11:45 AM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

A fiduciary relationship is one of confidence and trust. A professional fiduciary assists those who may no longer be able to manage their financial or personal affairs. At times these responsibilities are handled by close family members and friends. There are other times when an experienced, qualified, independent professional can serve you and your loved ones’ best interests.

Hear from Erin Markey at Best Interest Fiduciary Services about the ins and out of what a professional fiduciary does and what to look for in hiring one.

Following Erin’s presentation and Q&A, we’ll hear from two San Francisco Village members and their decision-making process in hiring their fiduciaries. Spoiler alert—they arrived at very different answers, illustrating just how personal a decision this is! We hope their journeys and learnings can help other Village members.

The Storytelling Connection
Friday, November 5, 11:00 AM -- 12:15 PM
This series started in October
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Storytelling strengthens community. It has ancient roots. Strong roots make a resilient community. Listening together is like traveling one shared landscape of wonder. Hearts open. Memories dance at the edges. Sighs and laughter harmonize. Let’s share the moment.

Come and be transported into the universal story themes, by listening and, if desired, reflecting and sharing your own experiences. San Francisco Village resident storyteller Olive Shaughnessy has been a professional storyteller for over 30 years, sharing the gifts of her trade through mesmerizing listening experiences. Visit her website https://olivestoryteller.com/

In this series, she’ll also dive into the elements and qualities of fairy tales, fables, myths, and legends. A fairytale becomes a real-life example when she shows how to apply the same principles to personal stories and a prop becomes a prompt for further reflection and sharing.

This series was intentionally planned for zoom so we can see each other’s faces rather than masked. We know connections are different virtually and that facial expression, words and voice carry the story. Writers, actors, storytellers, people who want to be mesmerized, people who want personal connection, people who want to try something new or something familiar, there is space for all. We hope you join us!

Aromatherapy for Health and Wellness
Friday, November 5, 2:00 – 3:00 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Let’s explore fun and creative ways in which we can incorporate aromatherapy into our daily routine. In this webinar we will learn how to enhance our self-care regimen and improve our overall health and wellness, while reducing exposure to deadly toxins and harmful chemicals that affect our wellbeing.

Essential oils, spices, and herbs have therapeutic properties that can improve overall wellness and enhance quality of life when used appropriately and safely. This ancient healing art can be useful in pain management, reducing stress and anxiety and treating insomnia and headaches and overall improving emotional, mental, and spiritual well-being. Featured Essential Oils: Lavender, frankincense, lemongrass, orange, peppermint, eucalyptus, tea tree, and others.

Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Learn how to recognize common signs of the disease in yourself and others and next steps to take, including how to talk to your doctor.

The Alzheimer’s Association leads the way to end Alzheimer’s and all other dementias — by accelerating global research, driving risk reduction and early detection, and maximizing quality care and support.

Experience Exchange
Tuesday, November 11, 1:30 – 2:30 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Are you craving meaningful and warm connections? Join us on Zoom for an intergenerational dialogue! We’ll breakout into small groups, engaging in conversations with working professionals from around the country (and potentially the globe!). We’ll talk about our experiences during the past year, how we’ve been changed, what we’re learning, and what matters now. This event is organized through Visit.org whose mission is to facilitate mutually beneficial interactions between people and communities around the world. Participants are joining as part of their company’s day of service.

DeYoung Virtual Tour: Belonging
Friday, November 12, 1:00 – 2:00 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

How do people join groups and share relationships? We will be looking at a series of paintings and objects showing the importance of belonging to a group from many cultures. The questions we will be thinking about are how do people participate in groups, are there initiations or indoctrinations, is the group formal or informal?

Writers Workshop
Tuesdays, November 16-December 21, 10:00 - 11:30 AM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org
This series is limited to 12 members. Those on waitlist will get priority enrollment for next series.

Have you always wanted to write your memoir but didn’t know where to start? Have you got some poems tucked away in a drawer? Do you have an idea for a gripping novel? Or do you just want to put pen to paper – wondering if a poem, an essay or a short story will emerge?

San Francisco Village Writers’ Workshop welcomes writers of all levels. You can start from a completely blank page or bring something you are already working on. We will explore different writing styles – from memoir to poetry to short and long fiction. We will also read poets and authors that resonate with us – and try to figure out how they transfer their experiences, thoughts and feelings to the written page. You will receive a robust bibliography of books about writing – and we will draw special examples from A Swim in a Pond in the Rain: In Which Four Russians Give a Master Class on Writing, Reading and Life by George Saunders (available at SF Public Library). And we will, to paraphrase poet Robert Frost, learn how to “surprise our readers, and ourselves, with our words.”

The Writers’ Workshop is led by writer and journalist Elaine Elinson, author of the award-winning Wherever There’s a Fight and a book reviewer for the Los Angeles Review of Books. Elinson has led writing workshops at SFV since 2015. We welcome those who have been part of the Writers Workshop in the past and we also welcome newcomers! No experience necessary!

Next Steps in Taking Climate Action
Friday, November 19, 11:00 AM --12:00 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

What are we doing in our personal lives to respond to the growing crisis of climate change? If you could change one personal habit that would benefit climate action, what would that be? Change is hard, especially alone. What prevents it? What is doable? Let’s talk. We will meet on the 3rd Friday morning of each month - for six months. We can share our experiences and together, make new choices. Please bring your ideas to our monthly meetings - beginning on November 19th. Bill Haskell will facilitate these discussions.
Asian Art Museum Virtual Tour: Timeless Traditions: Expressions of the Divine In Indian Art
Friday, November 19, 1:00 – 2:00 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Explore the vast panoply of South Asian art through the prism of its major belief systems: Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, and Sikhism. Discover how for thousands of years the artists of India and its neighbors have beautifully depicted their impressions of their deities and their cultures.

Resiliency Practices in Everyday Life
Mondays, November 29, December 6 & 13, 3:30 – 4:45 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Learn evidence-based skills to build resiliency that you can use right in the middle of everyday life. Teaching methods include brief lecture periods mixed with experiential exercises. You will also have opportunities to speak with others in structured break-out groups (pairs or triads) as well as in the larger group. Each class will have its own theme and the opportunity to practice new skills in a safe place.

Themes include: Attentional balance and grounding, positive intention setting, emotional balance, gratitude practice, cultivating a positive mindset. Participants will receive a free Wellness Journal.

Judy Long is a palliative care chaplain and educator at UCSF, where she teaches resiliency for patients, family caregivers, and clinicians. Judy also teaches courses in Compassion Cultivation Training, Mindful Self-Compassion, Mindfulness Based Emotional Balance, and Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction.

Reoccurring Events

Tai Chi and Qigong
Mondays, November 1, 8, 15, 22, & 29, 1:00 – 1:45 PM

Zoom
If not already on the Longevity Explorers email list, please RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Join an intimate group to discuss solutions to the challenges of growing older. The group is facilitated by Dr. Richard Caro, co-founder of TechEnhanced Life, PBC & Longevity Explorers which focus on the intersection of healthcare, aging, and technology. Find out about new products that can help postpone the day when growing older starts to get in the way of living life to the fullest. Share your ideas about what works and what does not work well with others from your community and members of other circles. Add your ideas and hear from your peers about “solutions someone needs to develop.”

Aging Well with Meditation

Wednesdays, November 3, 17, & 24, 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Meditation is a mind-body training that improves your ability to pay attention to the things that matter. Mindfulness meditation – paying attention purposefully and non-judgmentally in the present moment – is associated with lower stress, improved self-awareness, positive brain changes, more compassion, and better sleep. The group is led by Rachel Lanzerotti, IAYT-Certified Yoga Therapist, a long-time practitioner and teacher of yoga and mindfulness meditation. Come learn to practice meditation together. All levels of experience are welcome for this drop-in group.

Conversations about Race
Friday, December 3, 11:00 AM –12:15 PM
Zoom
RSVP to (415) 387-1375 or info@sfvillage.org

Facilitated by Kate Hoepke and Joanne Low.

Since early 2021, members have been meeting to explore questions about identity, white dominant culture, and racial disparities. We welcome the opportunity to better understand the complexities of an increasingly diverse America and how our unique experience is relevant in the current social discourse.

As a group, we’ve decided to use the book So you want to talk about race by Ijeoma Oluo to guide our conversations. For the December meeting, we will be using the first two chapters Is it really about race and What is racism as our theme.
Join us as we continue the conversation about race. All members are welcome to join, whether you attended earlier sessions or not.

Neighborhood Circles

Many of our circles have been gathering virtually during Shelter in Place and connecting with each other via phone and email. As SF reopens, some circles are starting to meet in person as well. Reach out to Jill Ellefsen to be introduced to your circle leader.

Contact Jill Ellefsen at jill@sfvillage.org or (415) 387-1375 ext. 2 to sign up to receive our twice weekly emails detailing the many volunteer options available to you.
Reach out to Jill for help with:
- grocery shopping and essential errand running
- online shopping assistance
- technology assistance by phone for help with Zoom or any other tech issues
- assistance connecting with your healthcare provider online (Telehealth)
- friendly caller connections
- outdoor gardening

SFV volunteers want to spend time with you!!!

Volunteers often report that they gain more than they give. They’re eager to connect, especially during this prolonged period of physical distancing. You’ll be doing someone else a favor by requesting their presence for:
- A little outdoor gardening
- A meet-up in a park for a masked walk
- A backyard or front porch visit

Get to know some kind-hearted neighbors you would otherwise not meet!
